(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 6th June, 1966.

2. In the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules, 1960—

(a) for rule 5, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"5. In addition to the articles specified in rule 4, a passenger may also be allowed to import free of duty, at the discretion of the proper officer, articles not exceeding rupees eight hundred in value, provided that the articles are not imported for sale or exchange and are such as could reasonably be treated as baggage or are of a kind normally used for making gifts or souvenirs. In the case of a passenger who is coming or returning to India after a stay of not less than three months abroad, the value of the articles which can be passed under this rule may be increased by rupees one hundred and sixty for each complete month in excess of three months, subject to a maximum of rupees sixteen hundred in all. A passenger shall not be permitted under this rule to import without payment of duty a large number of units of the same article, even though their total value may be within the free allowance.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the first paragraph of this rule, a passenger, who visits foreign countries more than once in the same calendar year, may be allowed on the second and subsequent occasions only one-half of the allowance admissible under that paragraph.

The full free allowance under this rule is not admissible to children or to passengers under eighteen years of age. The proper officer may, however, in his discretion, allow to such a child or passenger articles not exceeding one-fourth of that admissible to an adult passenger coming after the same period abroad."

(b) In rule 6, for the figures "2,000/-" occurring in clause (c) and in the first proviso thereto the figures "3,200/-" shall be substituted.

CENTRAL BOARD OF EXCISE AND CUSTOMS

CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 30th July 1966

G.S.R. 1173.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 157 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby rescinds the Manufacture and other operations in Warehouse Regulation, 1966, issued with the Notification of the Central Board of Excise and Customs No. G.S.R. 846 dated the 4th June, 1966.

[No. 154/F. No. 3/58/65-Cus. VII.]

G.S.R. 1174.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 157 of the Customs Act 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby makes the following regulations namely:—

1. Short Title and Commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called the Manufacture and other operations in Warehouse Regulations, 1966.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force on the 4th day of June, 1966.

2. Definitions.—For the purpose of these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

(i) "Act" means the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962);

(ii) "Manufacturer" means the owner of any warehoused goods to whom sanction has been accorded under regulation 5;

(iii) "proper" form means such form as the Assistant Collector of Customs may require to be adopted.

3. Owner to make application.—(a) The owner of any goods warehoused under the Act intending to undertake any manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse in relation to such goods shall make an application to the Assistant Collector of Customs in the proper form and furnish inter alia:

(i) information regarding the nature of the manufacturing process or other operations;

(ii) particulars of imported and other goods proposed to be used in the manufacturing process or other operations;

(iii) the detailed plan and description of the warehouse; and

(iv) data regarding the volume of trade anticipated out of the manufacturing process or other operations.

(b) The applicant shall on being called upon to do so furnish such other information as may be required.

4. Execution of Bond.—The Assistant Collector of Customs may, if he is satisfied that the applicant has carried out such alterations to the warehouse premises as may be required for this purpose and that the volume of trade and other considerations justify grant of sanction direct the applicant to file a bond, undertaking inter alia to—

(i) observe all the provisions of these regulations;

(ii) maintain detailed accounts of all imported and other goods used in the manufacturing process or other operations in the proper form and to produce such accounts for inspection by the proper officer;

(iii) submit detailed statements of all imported and other goods, used in the manufacturing process or other operations and those remaining in stock, at any time the proper officer directs;

(iv) provide to the officers of customs stationed in the warehouse for control and supervision of the manufacturing process or other operations such amenities as may be specified by the Assistant Collector of Customs;

(v) pay all the charges including pay, allowances, leave and pensionary charges of such officers as may from time to time be posted by the Assistant Collector of Customs in the warehouse for supervision and control of the manufacturing process or other operations; and

(vi) comply with such other conditions as may be imposed by the Assistant Collector of Customs from time to time for carrying out the purposes of these regulations and the Act.

5. Grant of sanction.—On execution of the bond, in the manner hereinbefore provided, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall accord sanction to the applicant to carry on such manufacturing process or other operations specifying:

(a) the manufacturing process or other operations permitted to be carrried on in the warehouse;

(b) the types and nature of imported and other goods permitted to be used.

(c) the period for which the sanction is valid; and

(d) the conditions, if any, subject to which the manufacturing process or other operations may be carried on in the warehouse.

6. Conditions that may be imposed by the Assistant Collector of Customs.—The Assistant Collector of Customs may from time to time:

(i) fix the dates or days on which and the hours during which the manufacturing process or other operations may be carried on in the warehouse;

(ii) determine the number of customs officers that may be attached to the warehouse for purposes of supervising the manufacturing process or other operations;

(iii) fix the sum payable by the manufacturer towards the cost of such establishment and the extra charges payable towards the overtime services, if any, performed by such establishment at the request of the manufacturer; and

(iv) prescribe the manner in which manufactured goods shall be packed, marked and stored at different stages of the manufacturing process or other operations.

7. Plant, Machinery accessories, fixtures, etc. must be duty-paid.—Plant, machinery, fixtures and accessories necessary for carrying on the manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse and consumable stores required for the maintenance thereof must be duty-paid.

8. Manufacture to be under supervision of Customs Officers.—The manufacturer shall carry on the manufacturing process or other operations in the warehouse under such supervision as the Assistant Collector of Customs may direct.

9. Maintenance of accounts.—The manufacturer shall maintain accounts relating to stocks, raw materials, goods in process, finished goods, waste and refuse in proper form:

Provided that where the manufacturer maintains for his own purpose such detailed accounts and has carried out such alterations in the form of accounts as may be required in this behalf, the Assistant Collector of Customs may in his discretion direct such forms of accounts to be adopted as the proper form.

10. Accounts to be assessible to Customs Officer.—The proper officer may, at any time, inspect or call for the accounts and connected records for scrutiny.

11. Control of proper officer over storage premises in the warehouse.—All rooms in the warehouse premises, wherein imported goods for use in the manufacturing process or other operations are stored, shall also be locked by the proper officer and the keys kept in his custody.

12. Issue and return of imported goods to/from the manufacturing process or other operations.—(a) The Assistant Collector of Customs shall, having regard to the manufacturing process or other operations to be carried on in the warehouse, direct the manner in which the imported goods shall be issued from and the un-used items received back into stock.

(b) The application for issue of imported goods and the vouchers against which the un-used items may be returned shall be in the proper form.

13. Manufacturer to give notice before suspending or discontinuing the manufacturing process or other operations.—No manufacturer shall suspend or discontinue the manufacturing process or other operations authorised to be carried on in the warehouse without giving in writing to the Assistant Collector of Customs, one month's notice of his intention so to do:

Provided that in any particular case the aforesaid period of one month may, on sufficient cause being shown, be reduced by the Assistant Collector of Customs by such period as the Assistant Collector may deem fit:

Provided also that where the manufacturer suspends or discontinues the manufacturing process or other operations without any notice, he shall be liable to pay on demand the cost of establishment and other charges for such reasonable period as the Assistant Collector of Customs may in his discretion determine.

14. Cancellation and suspension of sanction.—If the manufacturer or any person in his employ commits a breach of the provisions of the Act or the terms and conditions imposed by or under these regulations, or if the particulars furnished in the application for sanction are false or incorrect, or if any undertaking given in the bond is not fulfilled the Assistant Collector of Customs may, without prejudice to any other action that he may take under the provisions of the Act or these regulations, cancel the sanction for carrying on the manufacturing process or other operations:

Provided that before the sanction is cancelled the manufacturer shall be given reasonable opportunity of being heard.

15. Repeal.—The Rules and Regulations specified in the Schedule to these regulations shall cease to be in force except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such cesser.
